

Being listed on both the Indiana Do Not Call list and the Federal list, I wholeheartedly oppose the current actions of the Consumer Banker's Association attempts to weaken Indiana's current telephone privacy law.

Please do not allow the "association" to impose a federal "established business relationship" exception on myself and my family members.

I strongly feel that this is a threat to my cherished privacy.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Shannon Marie Dugan